spending the past few weeks at the home of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. B.

Whitaker of Merchant street, left today for Boston. At Boston he will attend the coming national convention of monumental dealers. At the close of the convention Mr. Whitaker will return to Barre before going to Chicago.

This forenoon a corps of masons commenced work on the strip of property owned by A. H. Buzzell on the south side of Pearl street, to make further improvements to the property. Some time ago a retaining wall was erected on two sides of the land, and recently fills were made to establish a well-graded piece of land. This morning the masons initiated the work of installing a water fountain. This fountain will be situated in the center of the plot, and its design will be very attractive. A foundation is being set now. The fountain complete will be finished in about three weeks.

Enclosing the grounds will be a neat iron fence. When the winter season sets in, the grounds will be overflowed and novel skating rink will be installed. It is the intention of the owner of the property to dress the surface with grass next spring, so as to enhance the beauty of the street.

Yesterday workmen started the work of clearing the ruins of the Greason-Beckett Granite company fire of a month ago, at Williamstown. It will be a matter of a few weeks before the workmen have the property cleared of the charred timbers, and then work will be commenced immediately to rebuild the plant. It is said that those promoting the construction of the new shed have disposed of all their stock, mostly to Williamstown people. An active interest is being assumed in the rebuilding of the plant, which will be one of the most modern and up-to-date granite plants in Vermont and equipped with the best obtainable granite-working appliances. It is said in Williamstown that the plant will be rebuilt by late fall and operating with fully as many men as ever before.
